DRS. HOLLAND & HAWKINS, PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS, KEYTESVILLE, MO.

Can be found at nights or when not professionally engaged, at Dr. Holland's residence.

Next Sunday is Easter.

Mr. C. B. Oldham, of the Democrat, was over Thursday and also Friday on business.

Dr. J. B. Redmon went to Salisbury Wednesday on professional business.

Mr. J. G. Gallemore, of the Press-Spectator, made a business trip to the capital Thursday.

Ned Brace, of Bowling Green, Mo., arrived Monday afternoon for a visit to old Keytesville friends.

Claiborne Hunt, of Boone county, arrived in Keytesville Wednesday afternoon and will assist his uncle, Mr. M. B. Hunt, in his furniture store. A year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Carmon, of just north of town, died Sunday. The little cherub had never been well and death was but a relief to its sufferings.

Herbert Gilliam was in Moberly Wednesday where he passed a satisfactory examination as telegraph operator, and will be given a position on the Wabash the first opening that occurs.

Mr. E. G. Scott, of Rothville, sends greeting to Mr. Pancoast, collector of Myers township, Grundy county, and cheerfully awards him the belt as the best collector of revenue in the state, so far as heard from. Mr. Scott is now roosting on a lower perch.

Brother Walter Cash, of the Marcelline Mirror, paid the Courier a fraternal call while in Keytesville last Thursday. The Mirror is one of our favorite exchanges, and has improved very much under the ownership and conduct of Bros. Cash and Broderick.

Dr. J. A. Egan, of this place, and Mr. W. D. Bowman, of Salisbury, have purchased the stock of drugs and groceries of the Sneed Drug and Grocery company, in Keytesville, and will assume charge of the business next Monday. Both Dr. Egan and Mr. Bowman are worthy gentlemen and the Courier wishes them much success in their new venture.

Lucian Whittenberg, of near Shannondale, broke one of his legs in two places on Tuesday of last week. Whittenberg works for Mr. Erastus Butler, and had just cut down a locust tree in Mr. Butler's yard. While trimming it up the leg broken was caught in a fork of the tree as it turned over. Dr. Welch, of Salisbury, was called to set the disabled member. The unfortunate young man will be disabled for some time.

Dr. Will Cowan, of Callaway county, is spending the week with his sister, Mrs. H. H. Miller, and Keytesville friends. Dr. Cowan recently graduated with high honors from the St. Louis Medical college, and will locate in that city for the practice of his profession. The doctor is quite an estimable young gentleman, and is a son of the Rev. Dr. John F. Cowan, an eminent divine of the O. S. Presbyterian church.

Mr. Frank DeJarnett, of near Dalton, worshipped to excess at the shrine of Bacchus last Saturday. Marshal Veatch tried to get him to go home, but he refused to do so, and Mr. Veatch arrested him. Mr. J. J. Moore stood good for Mr. DeJarnett's appearance Monday, but as he did not appear his fine was assessed at $2.50 and costs by Mayor Scott, which Mr. Moore was called upon to pay. He paid it.

Dr. J. S. Wallace, a well-known physician of Brunswick, who has practiced his profession in that city and vicinity for a number of years, will soon take up his abode in Denver, Colo. Dr. T. F. Martin, who recently formed a co-partnership with Dr. Wallace, at Brunswick, will continue to practice medicine at that place. He also has been appointed on the board of medical pension examiners, vice Dr. Wallace, resigned. The board is now composed of Drs. Martin and Cunningham, of Brunswick, and Dewey, of Keytesville.

To-day is Good Friday.

New spring millinery at Mrs. C. P. Vandiver's.

Jeans pants is the latest fad of feminine fashion in Keytesville.

Mrs. J. Dysart, of Moberly, and Mrs. Mat Woodson, of Kansas City, were the guests of their sister, Mrs. N. F. Mann, the first of this week.

Capt. F. C. Sasse, of Brunswick, was at circuit court Saturday hobbling on crutches—the result of a sprained ankle, received by falling down stairs.

The Salisbury papers are paying each other "left-handed" compliments. Perhaps "left-handed" compliments are better than no compliments at all.

Elder W. G. Barker has resigned his position as pastor of the Christian church at Brunswick on account of ill health, and has moved, with his family, to Mexico, Mo.

Brunswick may be said to have gone "wet" at the recent city election, as the contest was between the saloon and anti-saloon elements, the former being victorious by a large majority.

No. 2, the fast east-bound passenger train, which passes Keytesville station about 1 o'clock, p. m., ran over and killed a yearling calf belonging to Jerry Jackson, col., near the depot Monday.

Mr. John D. Butler, a former Keytesville grocery merchant, now of Dallas, Texas, attended circuit court and circulated among old Keytesville friends and relatives the latter part of last and the first of this week.

The people of De Witt can scarcely contain themselves since congress passed a bill authorizing the construction of a railroad bridge across the "Big Muddy" at that point. The bridge will be on the line of the new railway that is to run from Springfield by way of Sedalia, Marshal, Brookfield, and thence to some point in Iowa.

Press Halley pleaded guilty to a plain drunk in Mayor Scott's court on Thursday of last week, and was fined $2.50 and trimmings. Halley was on a lark the night before and spent the night in the calaboose. By the way, the calaboose did a rushing business Wednesday night as Halley, Thos. Shaughnessy and two negro women, the three latter of whom were mentioned in our last issue, were all occupants of the cooler that night.

Mr. E. A. Stevens, head miller in Owen & Courtney's flouring mill, at this place, is negotiating with citizens at Mendon with the view to putting in a flouring mill there. Mr. Stevens proposes to build and operate the mill if the citizens will raise the capital to furnish the building material. Mr. Stevens is an excellent miller, having had a number of years' experience at the business.

A one-legged tramp printer had his remaining member of locomotion broken at Brunswick on Wednesday night of last week. He was in the switch yards at the time, was under the influence of liquor, and it is presumed was trying to steal a ride when the accident occurred. The large bones of his leg were broken between the knee and ankle. He gave his name as Geo. M. Stewart. Sufficient money was made up by Brunswick citizens to send him and his "pal" to Kansas City, where he hoped to be placed in a hospital.

We have at the Courier office quite a curiosity in the way of a hen egg, sent in by Mrs. John Broadus, of three miles northwest of town. It is one and one-half inches long, and is somewhat the shape of a peanut, being joined in the middle by a sort of neck. The largest part of one of the ends is 2 3/4 inches in circumference and the other 2 inches, each end of which evidently contains a yolk. If the hen that laid it continues such productions she should be sent to the world's fair.

J. D. Crossland, of Brookfield, a brakeman on the Hannibal & St. Joe railroad, fell between the cars a few miles west of Clarence, Shelby county, Monday evening and was instantly killed. He was an industrious young man, and the sole support of a widowed mother.

Hansmann & Rick expect to start up their distillery again next week. They recently shut down on account of their inability to get corn and fuel, owing to the bad and almost impassable roads. Up to the time they shut down they had made 125 barrels of liquor this season.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to witness the first output of dry pressed brick ever made in Chariton county by the Brunswick Brick and Tile company, of Brunswick, on Thursday, April 14th, but owing to a rush of business we were unable to attend. We hope however to be able to pay the factory a visit at no distant day.

The Sumner Star is a yearling, and is now able "to walk around a chair." It celebrated the event last week by coming out in a red dress. The Star does all it can to boom Sumner and Sumner ought to do all it can to boom the Star. Brother Northcott is the biggest editor in this county, and, like most men, is respected according to his size.

While Andrew Stewart and Lewis Henstis were descending a shaft leading to a lead mine near that city, Monday morning, the hook attached to the bucket in which they were in broke, and Henstis was precipitated to the bottom, a distance of 500 feet, killing him instantly. Stewart caught to the curbing and was soon taken out without injury.

David Ousley, who was arrested in Putnam county on Wednesday of last week by the sheriff of Moniteau county, charged with criminal assault on his step-daughter, in the latter county, made his escape from the sheriff, near Sedalia, by jumping from the train while in rapid motion. The train was stopped, but Ousley was no where to be seen.

Mr. David E. Johnson, of near Shannondale, says that he is the happy dad of a fine boy that recently claimed quarters of his house, and says that the little fellow put in an appearance on the stage of life holding, "Hurrah for Mansur for congress." Frank De Jarnett, of near Dalton, is also in the same boat, and says that his new boy, too, is a Mansur boy.

Luke W. Burris, county clerk of Clay county, died at his residence, in Liberty, on Sunday morning in the 54th year of his age. He had been county clerk of that county for twenty-two years, and was serving his sixth term in that office when the fatal messenger summoned him. Mr. Burris was one of nature's noblemen, and no man stood higher in Clay county than he did, as was evidenced by the large number of people attending his burial services on Wednesday evening.

An amusing incident occurred at our city election on the 5th inst. A certain individual appeared before the judges to vote. A ticket was handed him and he was told to go to another room to make out his ticket. The party said, "No, he could make it 'out then and there." The judges insisted that under the Australian system he was required to go into another room to arrange his ticket. He retorted by saying, "D—n the Australians, we are Americans, and if he could not vote as an American he would not vote at all," and he did not either.

Go to the Show. The Wabash will sell tickets at 1-3 fare for the round trip to those desiring to attend Cook & Whitley's shows, at Moberly, May 5th, and at Carrollton, May 7th. Tickets good going on day of sale. Good returning the following day. W. H. CARSON, Agt.

A call has been issued for a Republican convention to be held at the court house, in Keytesville, on Monday, April 25th, at 1 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of selecting delegates to the Republican state convention, organizing a new county central committee and transacting such other business as may come before the convention. The township meetings for selecting delegates to the county convention will be held at the usual voting precincts in each township on Saturday, April 23rd. The representation in the county convention is based upon one delegate for every 25 or fraction of 12 votes polled for Kimball for governor in 1888. This basis will entitle the various townships to representation as follows:

Bee Branch.....4 Mendon.....4
Brunswick.....21 Missouri.....4
Bowling Green..8 Muscle Fork.....3
Chpriton.....7 Salisbury.....11
Cockrell.....3 Salt Creek.....4
Cunningham.....7 Triplett.....4
Clark.....3 Wayland.....3
Keytesville.....10 Yellow Creek.....3

And thus "the forlorn hope" is launched.

Bold Burglars.

The boldest burglary that has ever occurred in the rural districts of Missouri was perpetrated in the village of Renick, on Friday night of last week. A couple of masked men approached the front door of T. W. Gonola & Company's store, in that city, and made an entrance by bursting in the large glass front, and then rushed to the rear of the building where one of the clerks was sleeping, and drawing their revolvers ordered him to keep quiet.

One was left in charge of the frightened clerk, while the other went to the safe in another part of the room and tried the safe. Failing to open the safe with his chisels, drills and powder, he returned to the clerk, and putting a pillow slip over his head led him to the safe and made him open it.

They secured $115 from the safe, $76 of which belonged to the village post-office. They then made the clerk return to his bed, where they proceeded to tie him securely to the bed post, and then took their departure.

From the store of Gonola & Co. they went to the drug store of Dr. Forrest, where they effected an entrance, as in the above instance, and tried the safe, but failed to get it open. The daring thieves then made their escape, leaving their kit of burglar implements scattered on the floor. They left no traces behind them by means of which they could be run down.

Notice.

Messrs. John Gaston, of Keytesville, and George Conrad, two miles east of town, have formed a co-partnership as architects and builders, and would be glad to furnish estimates on any work in their line. The latest modern workmanship executed with neatness and dispatch and satisfaction guaranteed. Shop on the block just north of the Methodist church. GASTON & CONRAD, Keytesville, Mo.

For Sale or Trade

I have for sale or trade the fine stallion, Frank Lamb. He is 16 1/2 hands high, weighs 1,500 pounds, a beautiful chestnut sorrel, with heavy main and tail. This horse has demonstrated himself a good breeder. Age, 6 years. Frank Lamb's sire was Imp. Lord Saulton, 1,206 A. C. S., first dam by Imp. Emperor, second dam by Patterson's Copperbottom, third dam by Henry Clay. Will sell right for cash, or will trade for cows and heifers, either thin or fat. Call on or address, S. S. SANFORD, Moberly, Mo.

Nursery Stock.

If you want fruit trees true to name kinds suited to this climate and adapted by having been grown in your own soil, first-class, send your order to, MOBERLY NURSERY, Moberly, Mo.

All the latest novelties in ladies' and children's headgear at Mrs. C. P. Vandiver's.

Mrs. H. K. West and children, of Marceline, spent a part of last week visiting Keytesville relatives.

Miss Mamie Hancock is visiting the family of her brother, D. H. Hancock, jr., at Sweet Springs, Mo.

Mrs. W. H. Carson, wife of Station Agent Carson, is visiting relatives in Kansas City.

The ladies of Keytesville and vicinity are cordially invited to call and see my handsome line of millinery and notions. Mrs. C. P. VANDIVER.

Of course you want to see "the latest" in ladies' and children's headgear. You can find it at Mrs. C. P. Vandiver's.

Chas. Kellison, of one mile southwest of town, brought down twenty-three snipes at one wing shot last Saturday.

The sidewalks continue to grow worse and worse. A damage suit against the city for personal injuries may be looked for most any time.

FOUND—A pocket-book containing a small amount of money. Call at this office, describe pocket-book and name amount of money it contained.

Col. C. H. Woodson, of Salisbury, and F. M. Veatch, of Keytesville, acted as special deputy sheriffs during the recent term of circuit court, and both made good ones, too.

Mr. H. C. Hyde and son, Ed, and L. D. Hyde went to St. Louis Monday with a shipment of stock. The former shipped one car load of cattle and the latter one car load, each, of cattle and hogs.

Rev. J. H. Jackson, of Columbia, delivered his pithy lecture, "Chips for Kindling," at the Methodist church, in Keytesville, on Friday night of last week. Mr. Jackson was greeted by a large audience, and his lecture was heartily enjoyed.

The only jail bird sentenced to the penitentiary at the recent term of circuit court was Elza Harris, a negro, who was sentenced for two years for burglary. Harris is the negro who burglarized G. Bros.' store, in Missouri township, last Christmas eve night, and stole a lot of merchandise.

The county board of equalization adjourned Monday afternoon after having been in session six days. The proceedings will be published in the Brunswick. The board of appeals meets the 4th Monday in this month—April 25th.

Jas. Wren and B. F. Moorman and Geo. Buchanan, col., shipped stock to St. Louis Tuesday as follows: Mr. Wren one car cattle, Mr. Moorman one car cattle and one of hogs, and Mr. Buchanan one car cattle. L. L. Wheeler, B. F. Moorman and Jas. Wren went down with them.

The Courier senior is carrying his right hand in a sling, the result of getting a part of the end of the middle finger of that hand cut off from being caught in a cog wheel of the Courier's newspaper folder on Thursday night of last week. Our "pard" will be disabled for three or four months.

Dress-Making.

Misses Emma Elliott and Nora Hodges wish to announce to their friends that they have opened a dress-making establishment in the Chapman property on Bridge street and are prepared to do anything in their line at reasonable prices. A call solicited. MISS EMMA ELLIOTT, MISS NORA HODGES, Keytesville, Mo.

Farm for Sale.

My farm of 240 acres, 160 acres in cultivation and 80 acres of timbered land, the latter not fenced, is for sale. There is plenty of living water and splendid improvements on the premises. Situated 2 1/2 miles northwest of Pee Dee. Call on or address R. G. OLDFHAM, Muscle Fork, Mo.
